The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art began in 1965. It is dedicated to preserving and promoting Jewish heritage, culture, history and community through art and education.

Through the lens of both fine art and artifacts, the collection provides a testament and tribute to the resiliency of the Jewish people and those who seek to learn more about them. Special exhibits and events showcase works representing Jewish artists from historic to modern times.

The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art is located on the Zarrow Campus at 2021 E. 71st St. in Tulsa and is open to the public Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday Noon to 5 pm and on Sunday, 1 to 5 pm.

AAUW News 'n Notes

CONGRATULATIONS to University of California at Irvine Ph.D. candidate Zayda Siorrell-Medina, recipient of a $20,000 AAUW fellowship! Her research seeks to measure the impact of the U.S. immigrant-serving nonprofit sector.

MORE CONGRATULATIONS are due to Dr. Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala, Director-General of the World Trade Organization, on being awarded the 2021 AAUW Alumnae Recognition Award.

Dr. Okonjo-Iweala is a global finance expert, economist and international development professional with over 30 years of experience working in Asia, Africa, Europe, Latin America and North America. A 1977-78 AAUW International Fellow, she received her Ph.D. in regional economics and development from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

She has served twice as Nigeria's Finance Minister and shortly as Foreign Minister in 2006, the first woman to hold both positions. Currently, she is the first African and first woman to be the Director-General of the WTO. In 2021 Dr. Okonjo-Iweala was named one of Time magazine's 100 Most Influential People.

The AAUW Alumnae Recognition Award honors a past recipient of an AAUW fellowship or grant who has attained outstanding success and distinction in their chosen profession. Through this award, which was established in 2013, AAUW also recognizes the accomplishments of alumnae who inspire women and girls and advance our mission of achieving gender equity.
