MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

Thank you AAUW Tulsa Branch members for all you do to advocate for equity for all women and girls. We are reminded that equity is still an issue for many women including our Native American Sisters. November 30th is Equal Pay Day for Native American women, who earn only 59 cents on $1 as compared to non-Hispanic white men. This is the most significant pay disparity in the nation.

Thank you for reaching out to tribal members and to other women who may want to join our efforts. Happy Holidays to you and your family, and here's to a more equitable New Year!
